

Fall 2008 Assessment Workshop
Harding University
American Heritage Building

AGENDA

Thursday, October 9, 2008
Time/Room	Topic	Description
10:00 - 10:15am	Welcome and Introductions
10:15 - 11:00am	Assessment and Accreditation: Current Patterns and Emerging Trends	This presentation will cover The Higher Learning Commission's position on and commitment to student learning and assessment; fundamental questions for prompting conversations; and review current patterns and emerging trends.
11:00 - 12:00pm	Assessing Co-Curricular Learning: Moving Beyond the Core	This presentation and small group discussion/activity will attempt to broaden our understanding and expectations for assessing student learning by creating intentional connections between Academic and Student Affairs.
12:00 - 12:45pm	Lunch
12:45 - 2:45pm	Applying the Patterns of Success to your Institution and Culture	This presentation and small group discussion/activity will address the common challenges and issues that interfere with creating an institutional culture centered on student learning; patterns of successful assessment efforts will be discussed and applied.
2:45 - 3:00pm	Wrap-Up Questions & Close

* Breaks will be integrated into small group discussions/activities during the morning and afternoon sessions.